

presents a FREE professional development
workshop on preventing bullying

Let's Get Real

A fresh and revealing look at name-calling and bullying among middle school youth.

This free workshop gives educators and youth-service providers the tools they need to address teasing and bullying in their schools and communities. Learn how to use both the award-winning documentary—which showcases middle school students speaking candidly about their experiences—and the extensive curriculum guide to help youth put an end to this national epidemic.

Wednesday, October 3, 2007

4:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

(dinner will be provided)

Children's Museum of Montana
22 Railroad Square, Great Falls, MT 59401

- ★ Everyone leaves with a free workshop manual and full curriculum guide!
- ★ Each participating organization will receive one free copy of the film!
- ★ The Montana Office of Public Instruction is offering 3 CEU's for this workshop!

RSVP by September 25 at www.respectforall.org or registration@respectforall.org or (800) 405-3322 x380

Due to the popularity of this workshop, we can only provide space for two participants per organization.

This workshop is made possible through the generous support of the Ford Foundation, the Walter & Evelyn Haas Junior Foundation, the Arcus Foundation, and the partnership of the above organizations.